

ELECTIONS 2018 – Who will be Health Minister?

PARTY	Top Candidate	2nd Candidate	Comments
	 Gertrude Bourdon Former President/CEO of the CHU de Québec	 Gaétan Barrette Current Health Minister	Should Ms. Bourdon fail to be elected, it is possible that Dr. Barrette return to Health even though he is slated to be President of the Conseil du trésor. It is also possible that another candidate currently heading another ministry would take this position.
	 Danielle McCann Former President/CEO of the Montreal Health and Social Services Agency	 Dr. Lionel Carmant Pediatric Neurologist Former Director of Neurology at the CHU Sainte-Justine	According to projections, Ms. McCann is currently leading the voting intentions in the Sanguinet riding. Mr. Carmant's race against Ms. Lamarre should be very tight, considering that this riding has voted PQ in every election since 1976.
	 Diane Lamarre Former President of the Ordre des pharmaciens du Québec	 Diane Lavallée Former Executive Director of the Association of Health and Social Services Institutions	At the time of writing this, the PQ and the CAQ were neck and neck in the polls in Taillon. Ms. Lavallée is facing great adversity in Taschereau; Québec solidaire is gaining ground and the Liberals are still in it.